OBITUARY

Sarah Godfrey was born on November 9, 1907 in Wallaceville, Texas to the union of Rosie and John Godfrey. She was one of a family of three brothers and three sisters. Her early childhood was spent in Wallaceville and Houston where she enjoyed a happy home life and the spiritual direction of her Father a dedicated minister of God.

After completing grammar and high school in Houston, she also graduated from the Franklin School of Beauty and enjoyed serving as a Beautician for several years. During this time the Lord blessed her and she received the gift of the Holy Ghost and served as an active member of the Williams Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Elder C. Williams. In 1942 she was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Sherman Davenport, this union was blessed with a son William and a daughter Sandra.

In 1944 Sister Davenport moved to Oakland, California and worshipped with Bishop E.E. Cleveland and the Ephesian Church of God in Christ. After a brief stay in the Bay Area she returned to Houston and subsequently to San Francisco in 1956 where she worshipped with the Little Chapel Church of God in Christ pastored by Bishop L. E. Cleaver and served the Lord and the Church with gladness.

Again returning to the East Bay, she served and worshipped under the leadership of Elder Ray Mack of the Faith Deliverance Center. Sister Davenport's entire life can be summarized as a dear saint of God. During the period of physical disability she was still encouraged to fellowship with the saints and later returning to San Francisco Re-fellowshipped with Little Chapel Church of God in Christ under the ministry of Elder Robert D. Collier. Sister Davenport was called from labor to reward on July 25, 1975, she leaves to mourn her passing one daughter Mrs. Sandra Pettaway; One son in law Mr. Amos Pettaway; one son Mr. Samuel Godfrey and Elder Nelson Godfrey. Two sisters Miss Lola Godfrey and Mrs. Mable Thomas, also a host of neices, nephews, other relatives and a loving church family of East Oakland and San Francisco, California.
